

A flood is an overflow of water that temporarily submerges land or low-lying areas, often causing damage to property and infrastructure. It can occur due to various reasons such as heavy rainfall, storm surges, snowmelt, or dam failures, resulting in a sudden and rapid rise in water levels.